

Week	WB 1/2/21	Day	Friday	Class	London
Session 1	Session 2	Session 3	Session 3	Session 4	Session 5
English - writing	English - reading	Maths year 5	Maths year 6		Feedback Friday

Suggested time: 30 minutes	Suggested time: 30 minutes	Suggested time: 1 hour	Suggested time: 1 hour	Suggested time: 1 hour	Suggested time: 1 hour
Our learning goal is to write the closing paragraph and edit our persuasive letter	Our learning goal is to be able to summarise the main points from a news report.	Our learning goal is to be able to calculate the area of rectangles	Our learning goal is to be able to convert metric measures.	Our learning goal is to be carry out exercise to improve our physical and emotional wellbeing.	Our learning goal is to review key aspects from the learning for the week, tackling misconceptions, developing and deepening our understanding.
Rewatch the video if needed https://classroom.thenational.academy/lessons/to-write-a-persuasive-letter-ccw68r?utm_source=copy-link&utm_medium=copy&utm_campaign=sharing-button&activities=video&schoolUrn=143179	Watch the latest newshound and select a report to write a summary about. Then comment on how you feel about what you have found out. Were you surprised about something? Did it make you angry? Did something make you proud of a particular individual? Why do you think that? https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround	Watch the White Rose Maths Video responding to the questions asked. https://vimeo.com/480242752	Watch the White Rose Maths Video responding to the questions asked. https://vimeo.com/504805400	Tune in to the latest Joe Wicks workout on youtube. Let's see you putting maximum effort into maintaining your physical and emotional wellbeing through a good workout.	Watch the videos posted to Dojo and complete the additional activities posted.

Expected outcome Write the closing paragraph of your persuasive letter to the education secretary to encourage school uniforms being worn in schools. Then make sure that you check your work for any errors or improvements. Remember to upload your completed work to Dojo.	Expected outcome A detailed summary of the news report and your personal reflection and comments about what you have seen and heard within the report.	Expected outcome Complete both sides of the worksheet to apply your knowledge of area and demonstrate your understanding.	Expected outcome Complete both sides of the worksheet to apply your knowledge of converting metric measures and demonstrate your understanding.	Expected outcome Record videos and take pictures of your workout.	Expected outcome To demonstrate an understanding of the areas for development from the week and to deepen our understanding.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Keeping skills sharp	Well being
Sort the words into the correct word class categories.	Carry out your favourite type of exercise. Maybe that is going out for a walk and getting some fresh air. Maybe it is dancing to a high energy song. Maybe it is playing football in the garden. Any exercise releases endorphins which make us feel happy.